

LAOKOONGRUPPE

Staatsoper

(Konkord049/Hoanzl/Broken Silence)

Deep in the heart of the State of the Art

Homeland-Kitsch and an avant-garde-trained pop format, classic quotations and sizzling glitches, Schlager and Low-Fi, Blasmusik and Techno allusions, political directness and sentimental hermeticism, pathos and reflexion - the inclined listener will find all of this on the second album of Laokoongruppe. The latter having long ago become the sharpest tool in the Austrian shed of Pop music. The compositions' ingredients stick to the good old Pop recipe 'nice melodies + fine harmonies + haunting lyrics + inventive production', thus turning into a dangerously sweet concoction one soon won't be able to get enough of. - Great fortune that Staatsoper now serves you sixteen portions thereof.
