

BO CANDY & HIS BROKEN HEARTS

Bo Candy & his Broken Hearts
(Konkord059/Hoanzl/Broken Silence)

These are the days I claim my rifle!

BO CANDY & HIS BROKEN HEARTS are a rock'n'roll/rhythm'n'blues five-piece from Austria's Eastern-most province Burgenland, formed around local legend „Kantine“ Pronai.

Appearing on countless records both as a producer and a musician, he has been instrumental in turning this backwater region into an unlikely hotbed of leftfield pop.

Picture him as Burgenland's own Mike Mogis. Next to Pronai, his Broken Hearts feature Patrick Stürböth, Ivo Thomann, Judith Filimónova and Julian Schneeberger, all of them noted luminaries of the Austrian indie, garage beat and tech rap scenes.

„Bo is GREAT...if you don't agree with that you're a pretentious martian from Venus. Bo looks GREAT...like he's about to crawl underneath the chords with a spanner & sock the starter motor one time so that an engine starts uphumming & ready to take us on a golden ride way out somewhere in the yonder..

Bo is GREAT...because he'll never lay down & be conquered by his problems. He's always ready to bust out the shack & hit the track... his music is GREAT on a dark & rainy morning in Austria, just when you need some spirit & some proof that the big wide world exists, the D.J. puts on „Citylights“ & life seems worth living again...life seems to be in cinemascope again.

Bo is not on an egotrip...Bo is actually into the music...we need people like this...a lot of records today are made by people just to feed their fame.

Bo is GREAT...there ain't no whinging, whining or complaining...there's only great music, lyrics & an ocean of talent. Me? I love Candy!!“ [Federico „Piko Be“ Sánchez, Munich 2011]
